The Maple City Grocery Company, a new Paw Paw firm, has purchased the grocery stock of Mrs. E. H. Lindsley and will conduct the business hereafter. They took possession early Wednesday morning and seem already to be established there. Mr. A. W. Showerman has been engaged as manager. He is a thorough grocery man and his friends will surely be glad to see him at his new location.

Mrs. Lindsley has been in business in this store for five years and has made a friend of every customer that she ever waited upon or believed. She will take a well-earned vacation which will be of great benefit to her as she has been very closely confined to her business. She will remain in Paw Paw for the present.

SERENADERS DASH BOOSTING PLANS

"Of All Sad Words of Tongue or Pen, the Saddest are These, 'It Might Have Been'."

The editor's serenade! That sounds quite like a classic. Tuesday, in the still night along about the hour of a dozen or so, something classic or otherwise loosed its moorings and dashed itself against the ear drums of the poor ed. and his innocent family. Coming as it did, sudden, unheralded, f. f. crescendo—tin pans, bells, horns, and every other conceivable thing that was noise-producing, and the aforesaid man in a sound sleep or snoring condition, we were, to say the least, surprised. We might add that we were pleased and appreciated the little attention but for one thing: We are residents of Paw Paw and have a pride in her welfare. We would like to see her grow and progress, and were in a position to push and boost as no booster ever boosted. The proverbial old aunt had just given up the chase and had left us $200,000. We had "electrified" (?) the P. B. (Fine Business). We would build a new opera house, and have Uncle Tom and Eva next week; Maple lake was full of bass and the hotels around the lake were selling standing room only; we had a Chautauqua coliseum in the hands of contractor—C. C. Y.; the streets were paved with antiphosphatium; all this was nearly completed and some farther near the village was just shooting an oil well when those dumber kids slumped the market.

There is no use in a man using all his capital to build up a town if its inhabitants are so indifferent, and do not control their children. The town has had a backset that it will take years to remedy. We need a curfew.

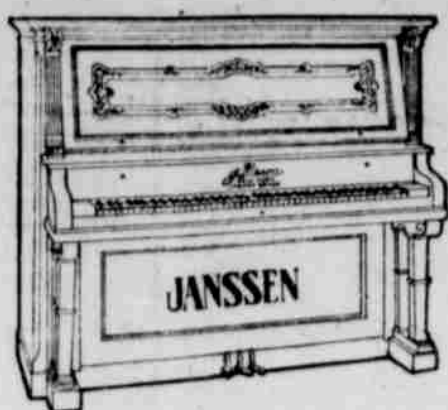

And to think that those heartless youngsters hollered "Happy New Year!" not realizing the havoc they had wrought, but started in on the next block.

The Janssen

Women are the best buyers! When it comes down to getting the right thing at the best possible price --a woman can show a man. It's natural for a woman to buy well. A man rarely does except in business matters. When a woman sees, hears and tries a JANSSEN Piano that is the piano she buys.
